

The Physical Education department takes pride in creating a positive environment for all pupils without exception.

Our highly experienced staff take a proactive approach to understanding each individual pupil's needs. Using student-focused differentiation strategies our Physical Education teachers can tailor the learning to meet the needs of the individual students.

The Physical Education curriculum is highly inclusive. This allows key learning concepts to be tailored through different tasks or learning strategies to meet the needs of all students regardless of ability or learning need.