

Hereteach Alliance - School Direct Applicant Handbook

A partnership between the University of Worcester, the University of Gloucester (GITEP) and sixteen High School settings across Herefordshire and Gloucestershire

"...During my school direct experience I feel that I was able to have a high level of choice of focus in terms of the classes that I took and the focus of my learning. The 'sandwich' nature of the school direct program also worked well with this in mind, so that the timetable could be adapted to focus on areas of my teaching that I hadn't had as much experience or needed to focus on, creating a more tailored and rounded initial teacher training experience. I also found my tutors very approachable and able to quickly change and tailor professional studies sessions to my changing needs." School Direct trainee 2017

WELCOME

Teaching is one of the most satisfying and rewarding careers. We, as the Hereteach Alliance, welcome you as a trainee to a network of support, expertise and experience to enable you to become a highly qualified teacher.

WHAT IS SCHOOL DIRECT?

A school based route into teaching with the emphasis on training in school alongside practitioners with the support of a University partner.

There are two training options available under School Direct.

“The SD route gives a trainee stronger grounding in a school and embeds them more deeply thus ensuring they can build more effective relationships with staff and students alike, instead of the shorter placements PGCE students are faced with.” School Direct student 2015/16

- A fee-based programme, paid for by the trainee through the Student Loans Scheme, which offers well-qualified graduates the opportunity to train in a school and receive a bursary (if eligible) or a scholarship to support your training.
- A salaried programme, which is an employment-based route available to graduates with at least three years' work experience and means trainees are paid a salary while they train.

Scholarships

If you're passionate about your subject and have the potential to be an inspirational teacher you could apply for a scholarship to support your training. Scholarships are awarded to the most gifted trainees in physics, maths, chemistry, computing, languages or geography in partnership with highly regarded professional subject associations.

As well as financial support, as a scholar you will enjoy a range of prestigious benefits, including:

- free membership from the professional subject associations awarding the scholarship
- access to resources and events to support you through your training
- support to improve your teacher practice and subject knowledge
- networking opportunities from a community of like-minded scholars

WHO IS ELIGIBLE FOR A SCHOLARSHIP?

To be eligible for a scholarship you should have at least a 2:1 degree or above and want to teach chemistry, computing, geography, languages, maths or physics. If applying with a 2:2, you will need to provide evidence of significant relevant experience. Scholarships are awarded in place of a bursary.

If you are not successful in your application for a scholarship, but have secured a place on a qualifying teacher training course in England you will still receive the standard bursary.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE FOR A BURSARY?

The subjects Physics, Maths, Languages, Computing, Geography, Chemistry, Classics, Biology, DT, English, History, Music, RE, Primary Maths and Primary carry a bursary

NCTL states “School Direct allows individuals to learn alongside some of the best teachers working in our classrooms today and be part of the team from day one. By offering bursaries of up to £25,000 in key subjects, or a salary, together with outstanding training and development, schools are attracting the very best new teachers.”

Find out more about bursaries on the Get into teaching website (<https://getintoteaching.education.gov.uk/funding-and-salary/overview>)

Recruitment of highly skilled individuals into the Teaching Profession is of paramount importance to our community. It benefits us all socially, financially and altruistically. In Herefordshire we have successfully recruited up to 20 trainees through School Direct. As our partner schools grow so do the number of trainees. Graduates from the School Direct PGCE at the University of Worcester are some of the most employable in the country.

"The most important difference is that by applying through School Direct, you, the trainee, get to give a preference for your main school. Given that this experience is so fundamental to the whole of the Teacher Training experience, I would not want to leave this placement to chance."

School Direct student 2015/16

WHO DO I CONTACT?

Any schools in our Alliance but Wigmore as Lead School is a good first step.

HOW DO I APPLY?

To apply for a Hereteach Alliance placement you need to apply through the UCAS website and select 'Hereteach Alliance' as ITT provider.

The Lead and partner schools plan, publicise and deliver recruitment events throughout the autumn and into spring for prospective trainees.

All partner schools have a page on their website advertising 'Get into Teaching' with all relevant information for prospective School Direct trainees. There are occasionally joint recruitment events held with the UW. All Partner Schools offer school experience to prospective School Direct Trainees on request. Partner Schools advertise School Direct at their careers events and are proactive in passing on enquiries to the Lead School (Wigmore School) if they cannot answer questions or queries from prospective trainees.

HOW DO WE SELECT OUR TRAINEES?

References

We require two references, of which one will be an academic reference for all applicants. For those applicants who finished their academic courses more than 5 years ago, this may not be the most appropriate. In such cases, employers or teachers from the school(s) trainees visited whilst gaining school experience are requested to comment on candidate's suitability for the teaching profession.

Interview process

The School Direct Programme is an intensive year, demanding full time commitment. Tutors and mentors are committed to providing generous support for trainees in meeting these demands.

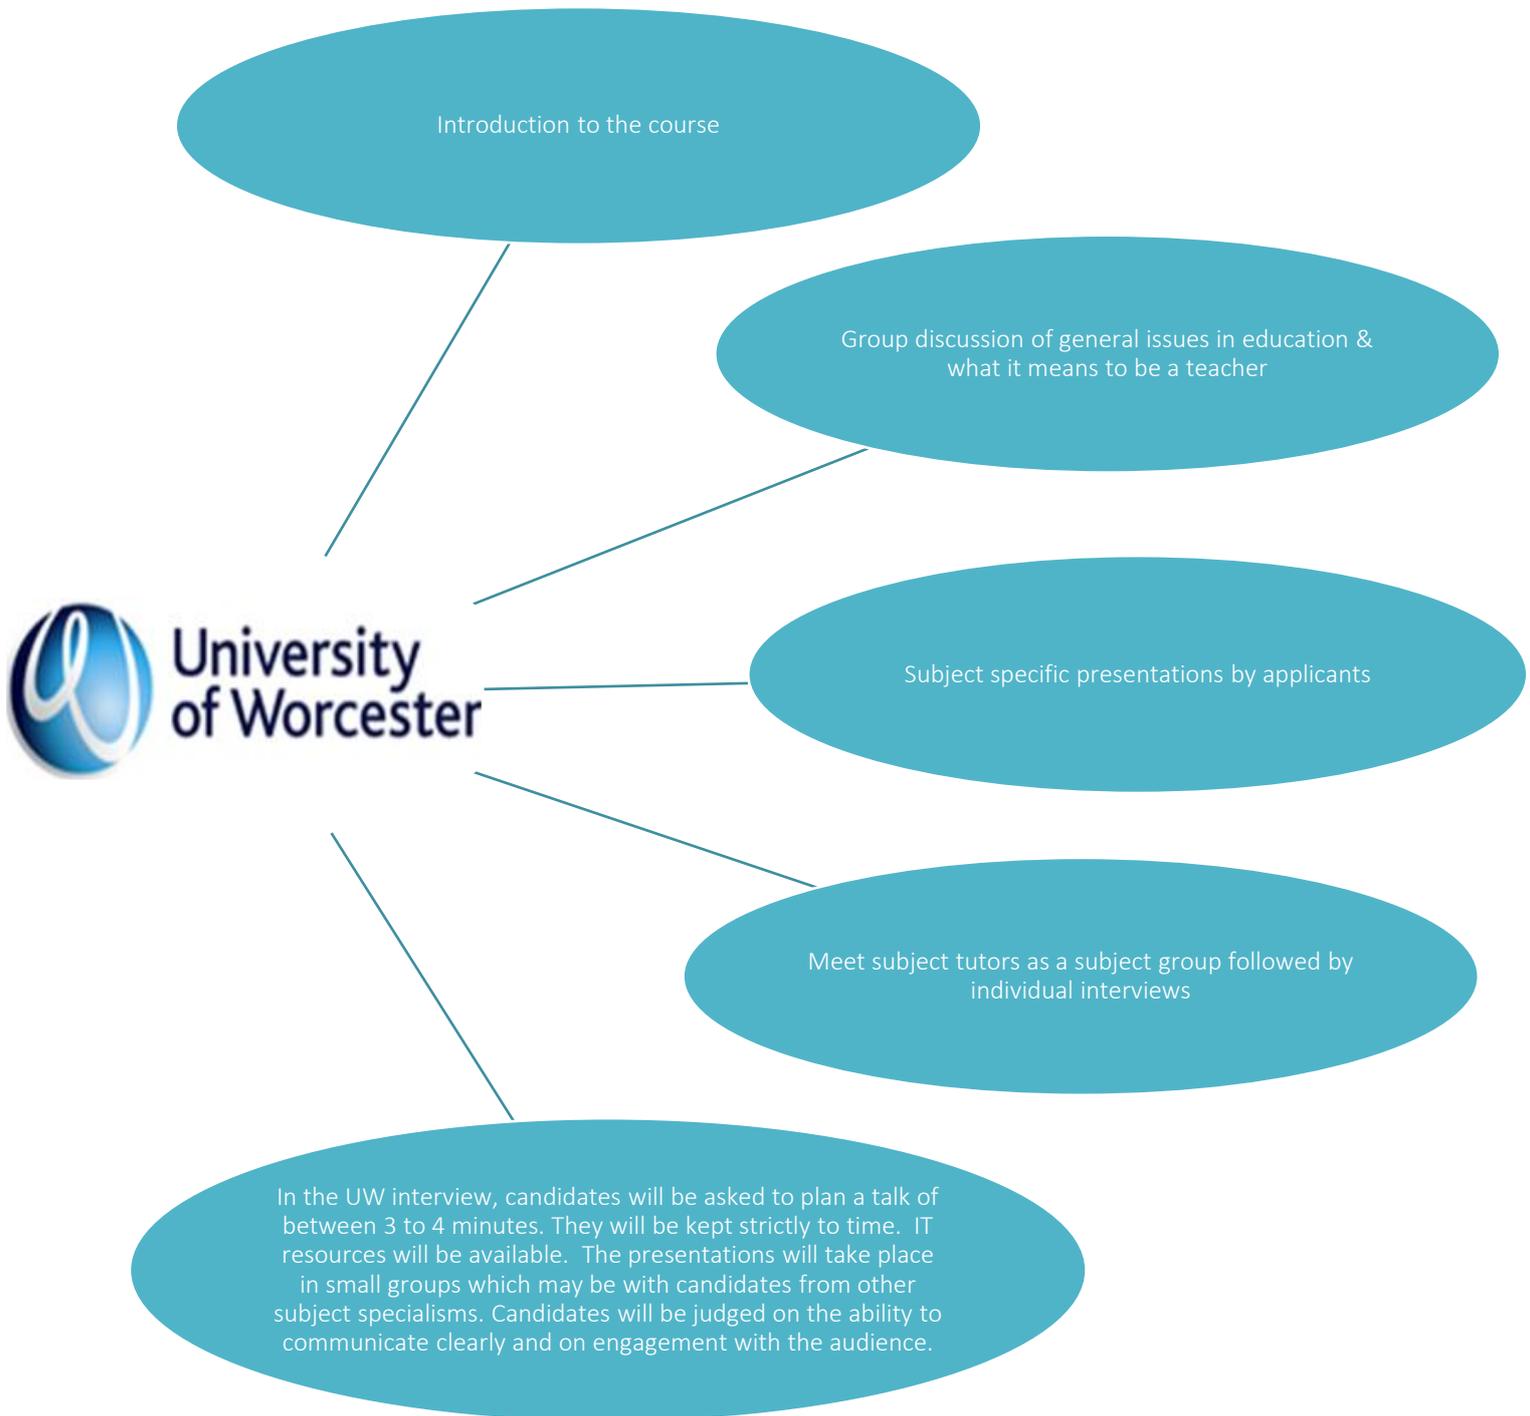

The selection process is rigorous and thorough and designed to help us decide whether prospective School Direct Trainees should train with us, and whether teaching is the right career for them.

The programme for the selection process includes a collaborative approach between the University of Worcester (UW) or GITEP and the schools working in partnership. It will involve an interview at the school and a second interview at the University of Worcester.

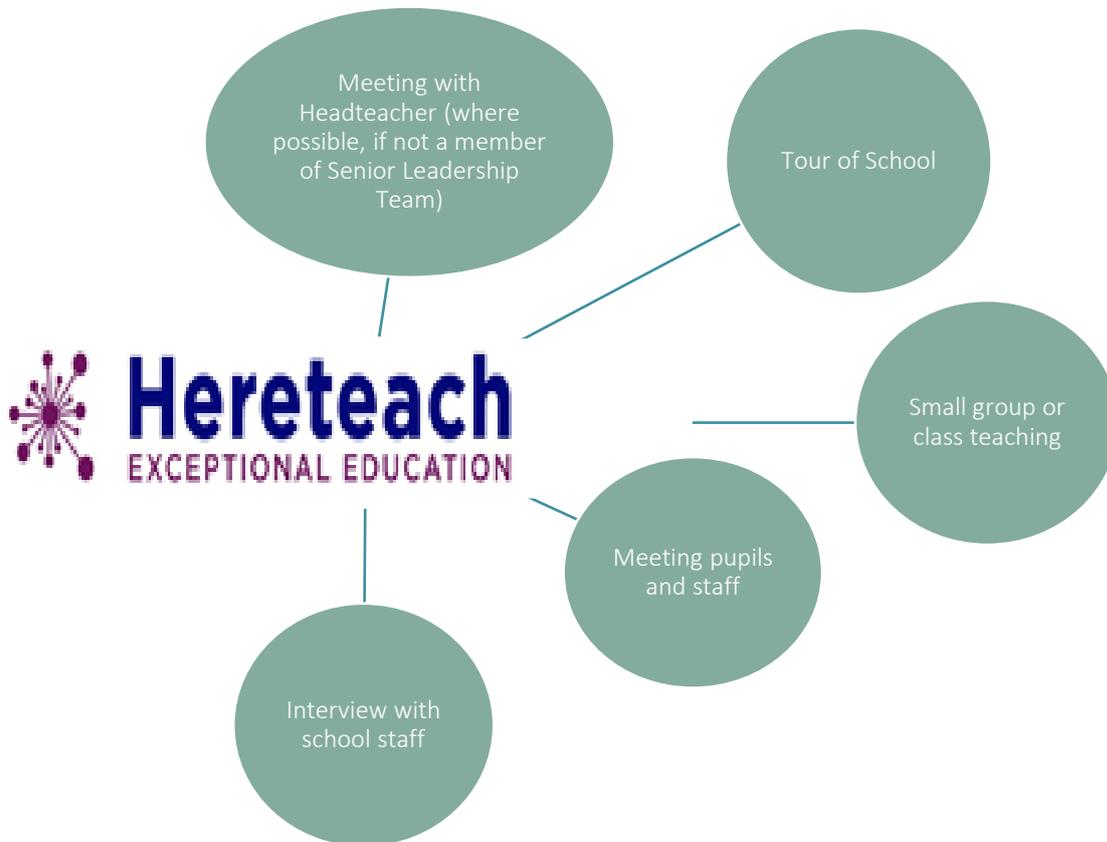

UW Interview Process

UW interviews include:

School Interviews include:

As part of the subject specific criteria, prospective students will be asked to complete a written task. All teachers need to be able to write English clearly without errors of spelling, grammar or punctuation because it is part of their job to teach pupils to do this. This task will help identify any difficulties they may have to address before joining the programme. The individual interview will explore subject specific issues as well as their reasons for teaching. It will explore their attitudes to young people and their understanding of what teaching entails.

You will be judged against the criteria listed below.

1. Appropriateness of subject qualifications and relevance to subject teaching
2. Capacity to extend subject knowledge
3. Awareness of the role and responsibilities of a teacher
4. Teaching experience
5. Resilience
6. Ability to communicate effectively
7. Enthusiasm for, and commitment to teaching
8. Awareness of personal strengths and weaknesses

- Decision: Formal decision is made through the University – UW has responsibility to get letter of acceptance or rejection out – a conditional acceptance until DBS, skills tests, proof of qualifications etc.) At the moment the Lead School also confirms acceptance by email or letter.
- ITT criteria tick list is completed by University
- Trainee to be allocated to placement schools as soon as possible but definitely by July and UW confirm through Admissions, checks for entry criteria, safeguarding e.g. DBS system: University of Worcester / school organises (if salaried route)

GITEP Interview Process

- Student applies through UCAS site
- UCAS informs GITEP and Hereteach of a new application
- Hereteach makes initial check on applications and selects those who meet criteria
- Hereteach shortlist and invite GITEP to interview with candidate
- Joint interview is held at School
- Interview process includes:
 1. Teaching Task –plan and deliver a 3 minute teaching episode at interview, please note there will be no ICT equipment in the room so you should provide any visual resources. You will also need to support the teaching episode by explaining how you would approach something in it that some children might find difficult to grasp and how you would take the lesson further. We are looking for your creativity and imagination.
 2. Portfolio - bring a comprehensive as possible portfolio of your artwork and any further work you have completed since degree level.
 3. English Test –complete the GITEP English test (30 minutes)
 4. Numeracy Test –complete the GITEP Numeracy test (10 minutes)
 5. Interview – There will be a formal interview and an opportunity for you to ask any questions.
 6. Subject Knowledge Audit
 7. Checks will be made to confirm whether or not the applicant has gained GCSE Grade C or above in Mathematics and English Language. The applicant is asked to bring with them the appropriate original certificates, i.e. GCSE Mathematics, English and a degree (if awarded already) to show the interviewer, plus a set of photocopies for our files. If they have not gained these qualifications they will need to indicate this at interview. If they are yet to complete their degree then they need to bring a transcript showing their module results for the past two years.

In collaboration, the University or GITEP and Lead School will:

- select and agree on suitable applicants

- liaise with the National College for Teaching and Learning on School Direct Programme
- Provide trainees with a Professional Development Programme delivered by a Professional Mentor in the placement school
- The Headteacher of the Lead School, in agreement with the University of Worcester or GITEP, may, for good and sufficient professional reasons, terminate a trainee's programme.
